

July 10, 1939.

Prof. W. R. Valenine,
Manual Training School,
Bordentown, N. J.

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing check for $5.00 for tickets for your Band Concert. I have previously mailed you a check for $5.00 and 15 tickets, this leaves 15 tickets unaccounted for. I am very sorry the people to whom I mailed them did not return them. I will try to do better another time.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ